President's Message

Our hot item of late has been a growing awareness of crime in our neighborhoods. We have been asking questions and finding a few answers on how to stay on top of these concerns. We look forward to hearing from our city and state representatives as they help us keep up on the bigger issues in our community.

Please join us to learn and contribute as we organize committees to identify concerns and solutions. As always, there is a lot going on; few of us have time to take it all in. Our hope lies in each of us stepping up and tackling problems in our areas of interest or expertise, using our individual talents to make better decisions and stay proactive. See you at the meeting.
