

Our part of town—from the Tudor-Muldoon curve to the swerve onto the Glenn Highway—is named after Anchorage pioneer homesteader Arnold L. Muldoon. He put up a log cabin among the spruce trees near Northern Lights Boulevard in the winter of 1940. He packed the materials out on his back, along a muddy trail that became Muldoon Road. Arnold L. Muldoon Park, named in his honor, preserves a portion of his original homestead. In 2010, “Arnie’s Army” volunteered to Spruce Up Muldoon Road. See the gallery.

Scenic Foothills and North East Community Council to co-host Neighborhood Pride Tour
Neighborhoods USA 2011 Conference will be held in Anchorage over the Memorial Day weekend, May 25-28. Friends, neighbors, and community activists from around the nation will gather in Anchorage. Scenic Foothills and Northeast Community Councils have voted to co-sponsor a Neighborhood Pride Tour of Muldoon on Thursday, May 26th, from 4 to 7 p.m. The tour is planned to accommodate between 35-45 people with bus transportation to and from our neighborhoods provided. Tours include travel time, a neighborhood tour, and end with a potluck dinner. We have begun a new I Love Muldoon page on Facebook to gather ideas, information and photos for a comprehensive virtual tour of Muldoon, from the curve to the swerve. The bus tour will focus on highlights of neighborhoods that were spruce forests when Arnold Muldoon homesteaded here.
